Conference Rules: • Community breaking behaviors, such as sexual activity, destructive actions or attitudes are prohibited. • No tobacco products, alcohol, illegal drugs, weapons or fireworks are allowed. • If a youth is taking prescription drugs or has a medical condition, he or she must inform his or her advisor. • Quiet same gender and coed sleeping must be made available at all conferences, and an advisor must stay in any sleeping area where there are two or more people. • All advisors attending the Con must have completed Advisor Training. In special cases, the youth council co-chairs may waive this requirement. • All attending the conference must remain onsite. In order to leave the premises, one must receive permission from his or her advisor and inform a designated advisor from the hosting church. • All attending the Youth conference, regardless of age, must abide by these rules, understanding that they may have to forego some of their usual privileges. • Additional rules may be set by the hosting group.

The purpose of these rules is to ensure a safe and peaceful environment, which is conducive to community building. I, _____, have read the event Rules. I understand the importance of community and the role that the rules play in the support of our intentional, weekend gatherings. I wish to preserve our right to have these gatherings and, therefore, I will follow those rules, and any others set by the hosting congregation, and encourage others to do so.
